General Comment

To whom it may concern,

I would be totally against any rule that would prevent me or any other people who have worked so hard to save money and deposit the funds in an IRA or similar accounts form using the "covered call" investment strategy in these accounts. This is not only one of the safest ways, but one of the only ways that we can grow the IRA accounts without further deposits. Please don't make any rule changes that would prevent this. We need the income from this "covered call"strategy.

Thank you,

Don C.Wetzel (voter and taxpayer from Hawaii)
